lyrics

Like a butterfly

Oh my youth is gone but I don't care now I will be a question mark

I have to wait for the truth in me
I have to wait for an end Maybe it's only one step ahead maybe it's where I still stand and it's all so nice everyone's got a price

so don't try to cope or interfere with your world

like a butterfly
I am proudly wearing a tie oh, I want to start over I have been getting somewhere, somewhere

I have to wait for the perfect time I have to wait for a sign
Maybe it's only one step ahead
maybe it's what he just said and it's all so good everyone's in the mood

so don't try to search for answers in this complicated world

like a butterfly
I'm falling down from the sky
Oh, I want to start over
I have been getting nowhere, nowhere

Da da did da da

V.I.P.

I want everyone to like me all the time I want everyone to watch me all the time
I want everyone to listen to me now - all day long

I want everyone to share the things I like I want everyone to fall in love with me
I want everyone to call me instantly when I'm alone at home

Don't get me wrong
It's where I belong
V.I.P.

I want everyone to show me some respect
I want everyone to know what's mine is mine
I want everyone to move away when I'm standing in line

I want everyone to tell me they agree I want everyone to stand behind my back I want everyone to trust me, what the heck it's all I'm asking for

Don't get me wrong
It's where I belong
V.I.P.

I once believed that I am the most important person alive
but now I know that's wrong

I want everyone to talk about their life
I want everyone to share the thoughts and love I want everyone to do what's right for them and I will do the same

I want everyone to laugh and set me free
I want everyone to sing along with me

What makes you, you think that you are more important than someone else we all are sounding bells

I once believed that
I am the most important person alive
but now I know that's wrong

Warm and Safe

So should I stay or should I leave is this still what I believe

I always knew that I am restless like all my inner tones are what I need to make me feel so homeless

Magic starts when you accept that it is true but not a fact

I always knew it will be painless as long as you are trying to be so tough and reckless but no, not me

Ref:
Warm and safe
but in between
so cold and brave
what is right
and what is fright

Long ago a friend told me that I should follow my lead

I always knew there were too many and they might hurt someone's feeling but then they might be so appealing

but no, not me

Ref:
Warm and safe
but in between
so cold and brave
what is right

So should I stay or should I leave

I always knew my thoughts are endless like flies are swarming in my head but now it's time to confess yes, that's me

Ref:
Warm and safe
but in between
so cold and brave

Warm and safe here cold and brave there

Climate

Dig the ground on your feet

Reach the sun on your head

Feel at home where you are

Catch a breeze when you can

Ref:

Let the climate be your best mate

Let the climate be your best mate

Dig the ground on your feet

Reach the sun on your head

Ref:

Let the climate be your best mate

Let the climate be your best mate

Cheesy Song (Richard Kapp / März 2008)

This might sound so cheesy to you but for me this is happiness

I could have send you flowers instead I sang for hours 'bout you

Remember when you made breakfast at your flat it was the finest I ever had we both have been so lazy the sky outside was hazy but bright

I know that you want more of me
You know I want that too good things will come to those who wait

As long as we will jump up and down when we meet the next time it will be ok

I could have send you flowers instead I thought for hours 'bout you

Remember when we were listening to the birds then you suddenly fell asleep

I could have send you flowers instead I wrote for hours 'bout you

Ref

Things have been complicated from the very start we had our verbal fights through all these endless nights but in between all the phrases I somehow knew that we always have been fighting for the two of us and now we're here no need to fear let's join the ride

Things might be different now but that's not really true cause what I feel is I love you

It's such an empty room when you're not here with me I always miss your liveliness

I could have send you flowers instead I dreamed for hours
'bout you

This might sound so cheesy to you but for me this is honesty

Struggle

I'm sitting here observing you, pure mystery, I have no clue I see a lady talking to herself but she doesn't seem to like the conversation
so shut up and talk to someone else
I am not obsessed by you, I am not

Soon I will be cured from all the struggle, struggle that hurts my brain Soon I will forget about the struggle, struggle with you - uh uh

Girls you fight for the wrong reason and boys you fight for no real reason but we, we all share a lot of reasoning

I'm stumbling to the underground dark corners echo whispering sounds I see a screaming man but no one cares So he tried to raise his voice against the whispering and failed. Are you ready to attack?
I am not obsessed by you, I am not

struggle, struggle that hurts my brain

I am standing here and have to face that maybe I'm from outer space I see a one-eyed boy with hopes and fear and he is looking straight into my eyes and made me disappear by killing all my lies

I am not obsessed by me, I am not

Soon I will be cured from all the
struggle, struggle that hurts my brain
Soon I will forget about the

da da di da da

Soon I will be cured from all the
struggle, struggle that hurts my brain
Soon I will forget about the struggle, struggle with you

Falling star

Where did all the things go that we have been wishing for nothing happend since the day
we saw a falling star

The days went on and on and on but still we're here and wait endless love and happiness but we are still afraid

oh my falling star
my falling star

You fade away
like all my dreams

When we're getting older we will live in disbelief the tales of good and bad are not so easy to conceive

The history of mankind grows those superstitious fools they're reading horoscopes resigning their true hopes

oh my falling star
my falling star

You fade away
like all my dreams

nothing happend since the day
we saw a falling star (4)

my falling star

You fade away
like all my dreams

Surfin' in the rain

People in the rain, you run away in vain but there is always hope for you and me

Either they will hide or probably decide to catch a bus and drive back home again

Some of them will laugh a girl takes off her shoes that's what I like about the rain

Surfin in the rain takes away the pain it's time to wash away your fears

People in the rain you run away in vain but there is always hope for you like the needles from the past you feel the raindrops on your skin

Listen to this song and listen to the sound when the rain hits on your door I just love to go outside and smell the rainy air

Let's jump in the pool cause that is really cool
that's what I like about the rain
Surfin in the rain
takes away the pain

it's time to wash your brain before others do it's time to wash your soul

When the time has come for us
Surfin in the rain
Surfin in the rain

Surfin in the rain
Surfin in the rain - it's no shame

Wake up, it's me

Do we see the mirror of our face

Can we find the way out of the haze

When we are between our fragile worlds

Will you recognize

[Barbara Gilles sings the same in spanish]

Wake up, it's me.
Wake up, it's me
Wake up, it's me
Wake up, it's me

Are you still the same as yesterday

Can you trust yourself in every way

Have we met in the darkness of my head

Is it you or me

[Barbara Gilles sings the same in spanish]

Wake up, it's me.
Wake up, it's me
Wake up, it's me
Wake up, it's me

Where have I been hundred years ago

How does it feel
When you are gone for good

Will you recognize

Hello World

In a world of dressed up wimps I am lazy
No need for chatterboxes and revenge
No games - I don't like to play All I wanna say is don't get in my way

Hello world I am telling you that you spoil the chance and hue
of the ordinary scenery
I don't know why
but it feels like I am out of place

People simulate they're cool today's economy is cruel why is moral sense so popular we learn to speak self-confident we live the latest trends our schedules must not bend

Hello world I am telling you
that you spoil the chance and hue
but it feels like I am out of place

Drink some coffee and read Carl Barks, Enjoy those harmless things Eat some food, watch the Golden Girls those are the times to pull on

Hello world I am telling you
that you spoil the chance and hue
but it feels like I am out of place
